However, Maggie's Christmas Miracle is definitely a standalone novella in the Westward Home and Hearts Mail-Order Brides series. Elaine Manders has become one of my favorite historical Christian authors as her books are action packed, realistic to life and not preaching but gently interweaving God's amazing love, forgiveness and grace into each story.

what created the harmony and space between the two is Life or Intent. Without Life, the tonal and the nagual could not exist. Life is the force of the absolute, the supreme, the Creator who creates everything. This is what he discovered: Everything in existence is a manifestation of the one living being we call God. Everything is God. And he ...
