Holy The Firm Annie Dillard

Annie Dillard's Holy the Firm is a classic. By that, I mean a lot of things. This slender volume--only seventy-six pages!--includes her famous moth essay, which I was required to read in my second year of college, and which I required my students to read in their first.

Holy the Firm by Annie Dillard - Goodreads

Holy the Firm is a 1977 book on spirituality by American naturalist and author Annie Dillard. Drawing from her prior two years spent writing in solitude on an island somewhere in Puget Sound, the book interrogates the nature of reality, time, the relationship between life and death, and the will of the Christian God.
